COTTON MARKETS.

New York, Nov. 17.—There was a reaction from the nervousness noted on Friday in the cotton market today and the tone was firmer in the main, although price movements were erratic at times. A renewal of confidence was shown at the opening and the tone was strong, with advances of 21 to 34 points. After the call the higher prices brought in a supply, principally from commission firms.

New Orleans and hedge selling from the South caused a reaction of about 25 points later in the first hour and for a time the undertone was very unsettled. In the late morning the market was steady, with prices holding well up to the high level of the first hour. Liverpool and serent of the leading spot firms were the leading late forenoon buyers. Prices ruled generally steady late in the session, the closing being firm at an advance of 25 to 61 points.

The Chronicle estimates the world's visible supply at 3,531,515 bales, compared with 5,690,175 last year. The American supply is 2,996,515 bales, against 4,223,176 last year. Receipts at the ports for the day were 35,000 bales, against 2,300 experience.

Security Storage shares brought 185, and Continental Trust Company stock, 120.

Washington bankers passed the 18 per cent payment on the Second Liberty Loan bonds without the slightest inconvenience.

Despite the large transfer to the credit of the Richmond regional bank of the Federal reserve system, there is probably nearly as much money in the banks of Washington today as there was before the payment on the liberty bonds.

New Line of Woolens On Display at Horn's Several hundred men have profited, by attending the big fall merchandise event staged by Horn, merchant tailor, 6il Seventh street. About tendays ago Mr. Horn returned from New York with a large shipment of woolens, and the success of this buying trip is being celebrated by a support of the late James T. and Rebecca E. Raymond of W. T. and Rebecca E. selling event of unusual magnitude.

The special offerings will be continued during the coming week, and are especially interesting in view of prevailing market conditions. Horn's is one of the few establishments not seriously handicapped by reason of the scarcity of expert workmen, which fact is of surpassing interest to his patrons.
